

Morrissey, Don't Make Fun Of Daddy's Voice

Long ago when he was young and restless
Suddenly Daddy saw the beckoning finger of fate
Don't make fun of Daddy's voice
Because he can't help it
When he was a teenage boy
Something got stuck in his throat
When you are young you crave affection
And it can come from the strangest direction
Don't make fun of Daddy's voice
Because he can't help it
When he was teenage boy
Something got stuck in his throat
Don't make fun of Daddy's voice
Because he can't help it
When he was teenage boy
Something got stuck in his throat
