

Morrissey, You Were Good In Your Time

Let the heart rest lay back your head
you were good in your time and we thank you
You made me feel less alone you made me feel not quite so deformed, uninformed and hunchback Time takes all breath away
you were good in your time and we thank you so You said more in one day than most people say in a lifetime, it was our time
and we thank you
An end-of-the-ride sigh your soft smile says:
"please understand, I must surrender."
Then you grip with your hand now so small in mine are you aware wherever you are that you have just died?
