Motley Crue, Teaser

That woman's got a smile Puts you in a trance And just one look at her Makes you want to dance

Those dark an rosy lips Only passify With just a hint of ruthlessness Sparkling in her eye

She's a teaser, and she's got no heart at all She's a teaser, and she'll tempt you 'til you Yes she'll tempt you 'til you fall She'll talk to you in riddles That have no sence, or rhyme And if you ask her what she means She says, she don't got no time

She's a teaser, and she's got no heart at all She's a teaser, and she'll tempt you 'til you Yes she'll tempt you 'til you fall

She's a teaser, and she's got no heart at all She's a teaser, and she'll tempt you 'til you Yes she'll tempt you 'til you fall
