

Mpress, Maybe

It's always been the same old thing
Ever time I meet a man
Seasons change and I move on again
It always seems what lies ahead
Is someone leaves and someone cares
So, why not me,
I wanna believe but
How do I know
Just when to let go of this fear
That someone will break my heart, for me

(Chorus)
Maybe you could be the one
Make me fall in love
Could you be the one, maybe
Maybe you could be the one to make my life complete, everything

Maybe you'll be the one that I need
Every word you've said to me
Was so sincere and honestly
I hesitate, don't wanna be hurt again
I try to cover up my heart
But you keep makin' it so hard
So why not me,

I wanna believe but
How do I know just,
When to let go of this fear
That someone will break my heart oh no

(Chorus)
(B Section)
Maybe you'll be the one that I need
I'll give you a chance, I'm willing to see

Maybe, don't make me think I'm crazy
For hope' in you'll, maybe
Be there for the rain
There for the change
Baby, don't make me think I'm crazy
Hoping that you'll maybe,
Maybe you'll be the one that I need

(Chorus, B Section)

Maybe you'll be the one
Make me fall in love
Could you be the one, maybe
Maybe you could be the one to make my life complete, everything
Maybe you could be the one to hurt me
Or maybe you could be the one to break me Right now you're everything that I could need everythin
(Repeat to fade)
