

mr. Gnome, House of Circles

I woke up lying in the dark When I looked at you I knew there was something real Left over me
No more sleeping
you once said That'll keep them to be messin with our head Always the one

You count to one we'll knock em over You sink to run
we knock em over

Take your hand
I'll make you run Now which side of you overlaps in front
We were holding back back, back, back
You were tempting from the start I knew that you would listen to my heart

This day ending
My mind bending
Home again. Everyone bye Find them running.
Makes them so high Find it back. Lone star Find it back...

Everyone you know is so high Everyone you know will get by So you wade into the light
I lost my soul again...
