Mr. T Experience, Sex Offender

I saw you standing on the corner, you looked so big and fine

I really wanted to go out with you, so when you smiled

I laid my heart on the line

You read me my rights and then you said; " Let's go" and nothing more

I thought of my nights and how they were

They were filled with

I know you wouldn't go

You'd watch my heart burst then, you'd step in

I had to know so I asked, you just had to laugh

We sat in the night with my hands cuffed at my side

I look at your life and your style

I wanted nothing more

I know you wouldn't go

You'd watch my heart burst then you'd step in

I had to know so I asked you just had to laugh

Walking the line you were a marksman

Told me that love like wine is ageless

Public defender

You had, to admit you wanted, the love of a sex offender

I know you wouldn't go

You'd watch my heart burst then you'd step in

I had to know so I asked, you just had to laugh

My vision in blue I call you from inside my cell

And in the trial you were there with, your badge and rubber boots

I think all the time how I'm going to perpatrate love with you

And when I get out there's no doubt

I'll be sex offensive to you
