Can
Can

I let you go inside my head
A little while with nothing said
The simple things are what I want to be

I opened up but now I'm closed
Today I'm just on answer-phone
Tomorrow's what I really want to say

Can anyone feel anything inside of me
Can anyone see anything inside of you
Cause I can see

I changed it all I changed it all
I tried so hard to break my fall
I couldn't see your things surrounding me

I'll find the light
I'll find the light
I'm wakening all through the night
I'll find a way home to you

Can anyone feel anything inside of me
Can anyone see anything inside of you
Cause I can see

But you don't let anyone else in I know
Anybody I know
Yeah and you don't let anyone else I know
Anybody I know
Yeah and you don't let anyone else in but me
Anybody can see
Yeah and you don't get down

I believe in you, you know I do
Been opened up and cut in two
And everything inside breathes for you

I love you more I love you more
Your coloured hair lies on the floor
The smell of you is just the smell of me

Can anyone feel anything inside of me
Can anyone see anything inside of me
Cause I can see, when I work it out I'm sure
