

Mura Masa, Love For That (ft. Shura)

Tell me, do you think I'm being sentimental
'Cause all this time I've been trying work on what it was Brought me close to you, wish I could feel it now
They don't fall in love for that
They don't know the love for that
It's all for you

It's all for you

It's all for you

Maybe I'm not the one to help you make decisions
'Cause I need some time for you to know that this is best for us
If I don't think it's right,
You'll think I'm wrong
They don't fall in love for that
They don't fall in love for that
It's all for you

It's all for you

It's all for you
