

MxPx, The Next Big Thing

Music today isn't the way it's supposed to be
You like what you're told
And if you know what's good then you'll agree

It's someone to tell ya who you are Someone to tell you who to be
Someone to show you what you see

It's the next big thing

You go to the store and
It's the same bands stacked on each other
You've heard it before but now
It's better than it's cover

How low can you go?
How low will you go?
To be the next big thing?
