

My Chemical Romance, Kiss The Ring

Kill the girls, get the maid and burn this whole damn room into the ass it's that plain
Is it hard? To get clean?

Well if you all start believing,
Then what else do you believe in?

In the will, or as a team
We're the Suicide Cult
And if you'd all follow me
Is it hard? To stop me?
We're gonna supersize this thing now
Bam bam
And he's keeping her stuff

And if you all start believing,
Then what else do you believe in?

Well that's living large
What did you sleep in?
Now she's sleeping and I'm laughing about it
Grab a seat and watch each other kill one another
Doesn't matter if you're worse or meaner, ok?

You gotta kiss the ring

Now the worlds gone lame
There ain't a dry eye in this whole damn place
Is it hard? To stay clean?

Well if you all start believing,
Then what else do you believe in?

When the world is having sex,
Theres a shotgun shell in the middle of the day
Is it hard to stop the bleed?
Oh yes we all give a damn now

Ha Ha

If you're seeing stars

Well if you all start believing,
Then what else do you believe in?

You better bring her 'round
Don't turn your back shout it, sing it!
It doesn't matter if the words don't mean a thing!

Enter,
You gotta kiss the ring
Uh Uh Uh
You gotta kiss the ring

Bang bang guns bringing them round
Bang Bang gonna kill them all

Ha ha he's kicking her ass
Bam Bam Bam he's kicking her ass

Well if you all start believing,
Then what else do you believe in?

He's gonna wrap around,
Were all believing, Shout it, sing it
Just gotta bring her round
It's the suicide summer chill warming up
It doesn't matter if the words don't mean a thing
this will make them all red down to the knees
