

My Insanity, Sunday

In the galaxy of friendliness
The birds are still chirping
I take a look at the beach
Where the supervisor feeds the little seagull

Only I can watch the whole scenery

The solar child touches the princess
For a moment her sun is shining bright again
It's good to see that only through my vibes
The equilibrium of things is intact

The cuddletoys have some drinks with the twin
In the pub where the tender-something works
There's a mirror - big as a monument
On the wall with the dolphin-wallpaper

Only I can watch the whole scenery
A perfect unity - all together
I stand for recovery and harmony
But soon a new time will come
