

My Ruin, My Beautiful Flower your mouth blooms like a cut sweet and full of sin i prick myself on your thorns and i bleed within your leaves fade to brown and i watch you die

in my torture garden
under black sunshine

my beautiful flower he loves me not he loves me

our love starts to spoil your lips bleed like a rose underneath the soil is where the evil grows your petals start to fall and the weeds attack

the blue sky is black

I am earth...you can feel me touch you hear me breath...cos it's my air that loves you and I am fire... you will feel me burn you come inside... and I'll be water with you
