

Mya, I Am

( chorus )

I am stronger than before
I have risen from a fall
I will break down anything in my way without looking back at all
I am stronger than before
Not a thing can hold me down
I will make it
I will take it
I will always be around

There is a thing that I got Something I never had before There is a reason i've got To be everything I am i'm sure I have been weakened by you For 1 hundred days too long I have been broken in two But i've never felt so strong

There is a power inside me
Its pushing now and its not letting go there is a feeling inside me
I'm not slowing down and it wont let me stop making me more than i am holding you where you are and im reaching the top aint nothing that you can do cause im already there and im not going to drop

I am stronger than before
Not a thing can hold me down
I will make it
I will take it

( verse 2 )

I wont be broken no more because im everything im meant to be it doesnt matter before im changing every thing bout me Now I believe in myself
Not a thing can touch me now
No interest in anyone else Im all about making myself proud

( pre chorus )

There is a power inside me

( chorus )

I am stronger than before

I will take it

Im not gonna drop
Im not gonna drop
Im not gonna stop Im not gonna drop
