

Myrath, My Inner War

Once... while I was walking

I saw an angel down on earth...

Taking... my fears away

He sang... some song from heaven

Love... nothing but love

Can break this spell of loneliness

He...told me his story

So cruel... but not so far

Faith is there inside you... now and forever

I'll be there beside you... here and wherever

Why do I have to cry every time I try to love...someone?

Why do I give up fighting every time my feelings overflow?

I believe in love yes I do and in all mankind

Love is not a crime to hide and there is joy to find

All we need is to try, to try to heal

Your bleeding, bleeding heart

Inside your heart they will be there... they will be there

So dare the seeds of hell that burn your life...that burn your life

Get down on your knees, and start to pray, and start to pray

God may shine on you and stop the pain
Stop the pain
