

Mystic Prophecy, Armies of Hell

Wake up with hate the dead in the night
My face in the mirror is broken inside
Flesh and bones everywhere
Smell the burning flesh in the air

Every corner out of my mind
Only hate is what you find
Madness and sickness in my head
Hollow inside

Demons surround me over the sky
Suicide solution in sight... Die!

Armies of hell
The savage souls in flames will burn
Armies of hell
The serpent evil in hell return
Welcome in hell
The legions of the damned reborn
Armies of hell
Unleashed the beast under the evil spell

I am back for breaking the law
Straight back from hell, begins a new war
For my sins, I give you my breath
Screaming souls from the valley of the death

Demons surround me over the sky
Suicide solution, in sight... Die!

Armies of hell
The savage souls in flames will burn
Armies of hell
The serpent evil in hell return
Welcome in hell
The legions of the damned reborn
Armies of hell
Unleashed the beast under the evil spell
