

Mystic Prophecy, Hate Black

Evil spirit over my soul
Father don't try forsake me
Never again try to break me
It's time for me to realise
Condemned solution, evilized
My soul betrayed and sacrificed

Legions of the other side
Rising from the sky
No one can't stop them
Evil spirit never dies

Hate black
Sacrifice myself for my last attack
Hate black
Evilized with hate, the madness in my head
Hate black
Something wicked now turns me back in black
Hate black
Attack, attack, attack!
Hate black

Killing is my desire
Like a child that plays with fire
Killing for the Godless hand
I'm a soldier under command
The spirit of the evil eye
Bloody angels fill the sky
And hunting souls will burn in flames

Legions of the other side
Rising from the sky
No one can't stop them
Evil spirit never dies

Hate black
Sacrifice myself for my last attack
Hate black
Evilized with hate, the madness in my head
Hate black
Hate black
Attack, attack, attack!
Hate black
