

N-DUBZ, Papa Can You Hear me

DAP'S to the Y

Nah Nah frickin'

And this is for my DAD!

Uncle B.

Yeah, i don't mean to bore, you know my name.

Chill for a second, just hear my pain.

If you've lost any loved ones you'll feel what I'm saying.

All was peaceful, down here with the lane.

When someone you loved, who put you up from the star.

Built you up and made you into who you are,

Who always believed saying, that you'll be a star.

Then all of the sudden they just passed.

Dash the reaper from ontop of ma wardrobe.

Slap den crack, from side of the mouth.

Put me on stage, infront of crowd.

Now we're picking up awards while he's under the ground.

My Daddy this and my Daddy that.

Well i found mine dead on a couch in ma flat.

So much to say, I wish that i could said bye.

The only time I'll talk to him is when i look into the sky.

All I've got is these pictures of ya,
and your light blue crack down, nock ya

Things in my house still smell of ya

All i wanna say is...

Papa if you can hear me!

I regret every bad things that i said,

Please forgive me if you hear me...

Never knew how much i loved ya till you was dead!

Papa if you can hear me,

If only youu, knew what you went and done.

Please forgive me if you hear me..

See all i know is, I'm proud to be your son.

Papa if you can hear me...

We're getting away in the world,

it's how i'm flying with N-Dubz.

If it wasn't for you Be there, wouldn't be N-Dubz.

Kept us together, never knowing we'd end up,

Moving onto Mobo's pushing the bench up.

You pushed and pushed when no-one wanted to believe,

But back then it was all a dream, it's like you.

Sacrificed your life for the love of success and a life full of stress.

I'm vexed cuz first they love you, second they hate you.

They talked about you, when they tried to play you.

Behind your back, they were tryna betray you.

But B, i never had a chance to repay for the things you done for me.

Put me on the right path, keep me from steering left.

Yeah We had a right laugh.

But I be feeling like Bruce Willis, each and every day i really wanna die hard.

All I've got is these pictures of ya,
and your light blue crack down, nock ya

Things in my house still smell of ya

All i wanna say is...

Papa if you can hear me!

I regret every bad things that i said,

Please forgive me if you hear me...

Never knew how much i loved ya till you was dead!

Papa if you can hear me,

If only youu, knew what you went and done.

Please forgive me if you hear me..

See all i know is, I'm proud to be your son.

Papa if you can hear me...

I never, ever hear what you said.

The fight and the laughter. The success and disasters, No!

But nothing seems clearer, that the day you were gone.

You said, despite all the stress, You havent fight to the death,
Coz little girl your a star, dont let them kill who you are...
You see you gave a chance,
And now look where I am, You're the reason, can't wait to see you again...
All I've got is these pictures of ya,
and your light blue crack down, nock ya
Things in my house still smell of ya
All i wanna say is...
Papa if you can hear me!
I regret every bad things that i said,
Please forgive me if you hear me...
Never knew how much i loved ya till you was dead!
Papa if you can hear me,
If only youu, knew what you went and done.
Please forgive me if you hear me..
See all i know is, I'm proud to be your son.
Papa if you can hear me...
N-dubz, Tealase, i havent say i dropped a tear when i done this shhh....
Like they always say, you dunno what you got till you lose it.
Nah, Nah Frickin'
B Yannar I'm gonna fulfill ya wish and take care of mum's in the yard.
HaHa... Papa if you can hear me!!
