Stay

The story barely started

Can't you

Stay

Do you really want no part of this

Oh so sweet

Reverie

You back off slowly through the door

You always go and blame the weather

The weather

It hurts so fast

When love goes bad

Until at last

We fade to black

And I'm numb, numb

Numb, numb

Wait

I need some time to fix this can't you wait ?

We can't afford to miss this

You back off slowly through the door

You always go and blame the weather

The weather

It hurts so fast

When love goes bad

Until at last

We fade to black

And I'm numb, numb

Numb, numb

We're living in a memory

The present is the price I pay

Fade to black

Fade to black

It hurts so fast

When love goes bad

Until at last

We fade to black
