

Natalia Lesz, Miss You

I am raw inside
And strangely lonely in this space
Empty bottles, dirty place
Still here....I miss you
And I am out again
To look for you among your friends
They glance my way, as if to say-
"You're still here..." ...I miss you
But I will never understand
The beauty of the greater plan
I've been searching, searching for a reason
Every day, everyday
That I miss you
I know its time
That I am OK
But they can tell
I am biting on my fingernails...
Still here...I miss you
Restless night
Remembering the things you said
I thank you for and won't forget
Still here....I miss you
But I will never understand
The beauty of the greater plan
I've been searching, searching for a reason
Every day, everyday
That I miss you
