

Natalia Safran, The One For Me

Love, who needs it anyway
Can you tell me please
I love a boy who's oh so cute
But he drives me crazy
Why do I even try
It's a hopeless case
He sleeps all day and plays all night
Never listens to what I say

Love, can't live without love
And I have found my girl She's sugar and spice and all things nice
But she drives me crazy
Why do I even try
It's a hopeless case
She works all day and worries much too much Always getting on my case

But when I look into your eyes
The truth is plain to see
I could never live without you
You're the one for me
I would rather argue with you
Than make love with someone else
Cause when you pull me close
You take my breath away

love, life would be so much easier without love love, can't imagine what such life would be worth why can't you try for me to be on time for once pick the laundry off the floor for god sakes put the seat down tell me baby why you always need to talk things out life's too short to sweat the small stuff and you're always stressing out

but when I look into your eyes
the truth is plain to see
I could never live without you
you're the one for me
I would rather argue with you
than make love with someone else
you take my breath away
