

Natalie Imbruglia, Build It Better

Is everything broken
If I could take it back even for a moment
Because some nights I want that
Should I call you
I could try to explain
But I'll just make
The same mistake

So i'll just lie here
Lock away these words
Just keep tchem inside me
If you only knew how much it hurts
But if i am honest
In athe cold light day
I'll be ok
More than ok

If it's falling let it fall
