

Natasha Bedingfield, Put Your Arms Around Me

That original feeling never went away
That's why I'm standing here today
Whoa oh oh, whoa oh oh
So many ups and downs and nothing's changed
That's why I know I'm here to stay
Whoa oh oh, whoa oh oh

So put your arms around me
And then stay there forever
Let it always be this way
You and me together
So put your arms around me
And I'll never let go
I know they're easy words to say
But I mean it more than ever

Yours is the kind of love
Makes nothing else feel good enough
And I'm never gonna give you up
Oh no, oh no

That original feeling never went away
That's why I'm standing here today
Whoa oh oh
Ain't nobody gonna take your place
Whoa oh oh
Only you make me feel this way

So many ups and downs and nothing's changed
That's why I know I'm here to stay
Whoa oh
Ain't nobody gonna replace it
Whoa oh
Only you make me feel the same

So put your arms around me
And then stay there forever
Let it always be this way
You and me together
So put your arms around me
And I'll never let go
I know they're easy words to say
But I mean it more than ever

Yours is the kind of love
Makes nothing else feel good enough
And I'm never gonna give you up
Oh no, oh no
Yours is the kind of love
Makes nothing else feel good enough
And I'm never gonna give you up
Oh no, oh no

I can't explain
What's the glue that holds us in
I can't refrain
If I had the chance I'd do it over again

So put your arms around me
And then stay there forever
You and me together

So put your arms around me
And then never let go

So put your arms around me
And then stay there forever
You and me together
Put your arms around me

Yours is the kind of love
Makes nothing else feel good enough
Oh no, oh no
Yours is the kind of love
Makes nothing else feel good enough
Oh no, oh no
Yours is the kind of love
Makes nothing else feel good enough
Oh no, oh no
