

Natasza Urbańska, Let Me Lie (NATASZA)

Let me lie to you
Show your love whatever loose
Have you knocking on my door
As you're begging me for more

Love the way I make you whole
What I give you like it's gold
I'm feeling like I'm loosing it
It it wrong, is it wrong?

Love the way I make you fold
Like I've got complete control
I'm feeling like I'm loosing it
Am I wrong? Am I wrong?

I don't wanna let you go so

Let me lie to you
Show your love whatever loose
Have you knocking on my door
As you're begging me for more

Lie to you
Show your love whatever loose
Have you fallen into pieces over
Falling into pieces
Trying to forget me
I don't really mean it

Did I really touch your soul
Did I really take control
Of your ways
I'm loving how you loosing it
Am I wrong am I wrong?

Love the way I make you fold
Like I've got complete control
I'm feeling like I'm loosing it
Am I wrong? Am I wrong?

Let me lie to you
Show your love whatever loose
Have you knocking on my door
As you're begging me for more

Lie to you
Show your love whatever loose
Have you fallen into pieces over
Falling into pieces
Trying to forget me
I don't really mean it
