

Naughty Boy, RAY BLK, Wyclef Jean, All Or Nothing

God knows they told me They really did but I believed you I really did you even told me you really did didn't believe you, I never did

Fore you forget just who you are you go ahead and tell'em
no, no, no, no, no
nah,nah, nah

this'll be the last time I pretend this'll be the last time I give in look me in the eye when you tell your lie this time it's a all or nothing thing

this'll be the last time I pretend
this'll be the last time I give in
this time it's a all or nothing thing

I shoulda showed you, I really should
What I was made of,
I never would I let you sell me the way yu did If I remembered I'm solid gold

Fore you forget just who you are
no, no, no, no, no

this'll be the last time I pretend
this'll be the last time I give in
this time it's a all or nothing thing

this'll be the last time I pretend
this'll be the last time I give in
this time it's a all or nothing thing

do you try?
so our dream won't die now you can't justify the guilt got mr tongue-tied when I say someone please call 911 that's cause I realized the wrong that I've done emergency, somebody shot my heart down but two wrongs don't make it right I was blind but now I see took an L but now I'm G you could never be faithful but you were my religion so I believed you when you said you were changed you were playing me like a game when I said I want TLC didn't mean somebody that creeps now I'm ghost and you say that ya haunted cause all you think about is how bad you want it this'll be the last time

So look me in the eye when you tell your lie this time it's a all or nothing thing
