

Negative, Fading Yourself

Fade all the demons in your head
It's getting harder to understand
Delusion all that makes no sense
It's all in our minds, it's all in our eyes
They see what they want to see
The whole truth beyond these endless lies
Every face that you make
They've become so lame

You're losing your faith
Can't you see that there must be something?
Something you know
And more to believe in
You're fading yourself

Take some wasted years you thought you knew
And you'll see that you were wrong
What it takes, what's the price of being in bloom?
You've become so numb
All that mattered is gone

You're losing your faith
Can't you see that there must be something?
Something you know
And more to believe in

If you keep looking back and feel sorry for yesterdays
You'll be one of the strangers, you can't recognize yourself
The passion you felt, it was so strong
Now it's gone

You're losing your faith
Can't you see that there must be something?
Something you know
And more to believe in

You're losing your faith
Can't you see that there must be something?
Something you know
And more to believe in
You're fading yourself
You're fading yourself
