Neglected Fields, Sinesthetic

[bonus track]

Charmed by the splendour of this Neurally perplexed body To commence Bio-organic alchemy That's something morbid...

Wave! Curtains falls... Twisted tactile witchery Nevermore thing accept the way they followed Bodily affairs... Psychotic trip Chimerical hollow...

Suspended as I passed an instant after death To scan a canvas chemical Perception's in progress, entirelly reversed Within it streams Where sense a choir of twisted nerves

Stream
Cold liquid streams
Sweet silver smell
I'm floating in
Adhesive light
Self-tasted kinds
Transcendently devitalized

Where rapture's trapped And turned apart Revealing heart Of sinesthetic art

Where silence flows Beyond, below Revealing claws Of sinesthetic throe
