If you were to say to me, "He left you, Your life's through..."
Still I can't find your words, I'm sorry, it's time to be free

I'm always right behind you
Someone to fall back onto
Without the words, "I love you"
I'll be there someday...

Three weeks gone, and I've grown strong
I finally found the words to say to you
I grew up and you messed up. So what's your problem anyway?

I fell in love with you
But then I spoke too soon
I'm sorry if you miss me
But I'll see you someday...

So what's your problem anyway, now that you've gone away?
If you're sorry, then I'm sorry, but you never meant much anyway...

I fell in love with you
But then I spoke too soon
I'm sorry if you miss me
But I'll see you someday...
I'll see you someday
