

Neo Retros, Sun Shines On

Somebody's sky talks to her
Somebody's future's told
Nobody's lost, just resigned
And am I in time?

Copycat muse and déj? vues
Calling your crop to move
Out in parade lined in grades
And maybe you're saved

Sun shines on, shine on
Sun shines on, shine on
Sun shines on, shine on
Repeat, play, replay

Sun shines on, shine on
Sun shines on, shine on
Sun shines on, shine on
Repeat, play, replay, erase

Remedy now, the memory
Of who you once were last night
That heavenly brow, that arch that frown
And maybe we'll drown

Sun shines on, shine on
Sun shines on, shine on
Sun shines on, shine on
Repeat, play, replay, erase?
