

Neo Retros, The High Rise In The Sunshine

Their footprints in skylines
And lifelines decay
A honeymoon ended
And the sky's bullet grey

The high-rise in the sunshine
And cries in the daytime
Get carried away
The high-rise in the sunshine
And cries in the daytime
Get carried away, away

My mind is on preset
As I'm told I'm someone
Maybe I'll fly like a missile
Or sink like the sun
The high-rise in the sunshine
And cries in the daytime
