

Nerf Herder, Karaoke King

He might sing for all the ladies
In the front row
The luckiest one will catch the scarf that he throws
In the mood for Huey Luis
Or maybe a show tune
He'll dedicate 'The Rainbow Connection' for you

Oh he's working the crowds
with Micheal Bolton's 'Blue Dream'
Now he's singing 'Islands in the Stream'
He can sing in any key
He never reads what's on the screen
That's because he'll always be the Karaoke King
He'll always be the Karaoke King

He spots a single woman
At the back of the bar
He'll do a Bryan Adams medly
Trying to impress her.
With his John Tesh smile
And Hall and Oates hits
Even Julio Inglesis can't top this

Oh He's working the crowds
with Micheal Bolton's 'Blue Dream'
Now he's singing 'Islands in the Stream'
He can sing in any key.
He never reads what's on the screen.
That's because he'll always be the Karaoke King
He'll always be the Karaoke King.

Now he couldn't succeed in the pop music scene
But he's starring in his own fantasy
Still tryin' to be discovered he thinks he'll make it big.
That's because he'll always be the Karaoke King
He'll always be the Karaoke King
