

New People, Banana Split

Let the days be bright
Let your words be light
Let your feelings show
Let the wind just blow

Each time I see You sitting by the door
You've got that face, like you wanted more
And you never smile, like it couldn't be worse
Collecting the money for somebody else

Don't get me wrong way - I like the way you look
I like that unused ticket sticking out of your book
Don't get me wrong way - I love the way you look I'm like your unused ticket, I just think you could...

I don't want you to be in the state I'm in Like I'm half asleep

But you don't need me to tell you
There's no good time to say goodbye
