

New People, Lucky One

So you're broke down
Feeling woeful, all alone
No one around
To listen and to wipe

I know it's hard
to overcome the meaningless and keep it tight
I know it's hard
to wake up every morning with a smile

So you won't cry
With all the longing in your bones
No one around
Should see you when you're lost

I know you're tough
You never tell you never show
You bear the cost
It may be rough
To fall asleep with Eyes closed every night

Hello!
There is some more!
There are some worse
things out there so if you can cope
with yours on your own you're just the lucky one!

Can you live for just one moment?
Can you stay for more than a smoke?
Can you make the night go over?
