

Niall Horan, Finally Free

Standing here on our own
Yeah, the first step's the hardest
When you're walking into the unknown
It's been dark and it's been cold
Had my head in the clouds never knowing what lies down below

Then you spoke your truth with no secrets
Told me 'use your heart while it's beating'

When you're right here, beside me
There's nothing else I need
Your eyes keep me reminded
That nothing's out of reach
When you're with me
It feels like I'm finally free
Feels like I'm finally free

I didn't know, didn't know what was real
Had to go to the edge and look down
Just to see how it feels

Then you spoke your truth with no secrets
Told me 'use your heart while it's beating'

When you're right here, beside me
There's nothing else I need
Yeah, your eyes keep me reminded
That nothing's out of reach
When you're with me
It feels like I'm finally free (Woo woo)
Feels like I'm finally free

I used to spend my nights
Looking at the stars
Wondering how to get there
Or is it just too far?
I used to spend my nights
Looking at the stars
Wondering how to get there
Or is it just too far?

But when you're right here, beside me
There's nothing else I need
Yeah, your eyes keep me reminded
That nothing's out of reach
It's easy to believe
When you're with me
It feels like I'm finally free
Oh yeah, feels like I'm finally free (Woo woo)
It feels like I'm finally free
