

Nick Cave, Shoot Me Down

An old sentimental night you roll me at your sides you shot me down Though I had no enemy here you get me very near and shoot me down shoot me down
your hands they flutter up
and shoot me down... in flames

Stand back baby, stand back and let me breathe
I think I must be filin' outta here
I can hear the grass grow
I can hear the melting snow
I can feel your breath against my ear
I might just disappear
Yeah, wouldn't that be nice?
Yeah, wouldn't that be nice?
Well, wouldn't that be nice?

I look into your eyes it comes as no great surprise you're gonna shoot me down
shoot me down
I know that when you smile it'll only be a short little while Shoot me down... in flames

in flames
in flames
oh, in flames shoot me down, shoot me down
in flames
