Nick Cave, There Is A Town

There is a town Where I was born Far far away Across the sea

And in that town Where I was born I would dream That one day I would leave And cross the sea

And so it goes And so it seems That God lives only in our dreams In our dreams

And now I live
In this town
I walk these dark streets
Up and down, up and down
Under a dark sky
And I dream
That one day
I'll go back home

And so it goes And so it seems That God lives only in our dreams In our dreams
