Nickelback, Curb

Have I gone all too far?
Have I been here before?
If I have let me know
How it goes
Take her place
And I will
See her face
No reason
Let it slide
And I will
Watch her die...
To run through fields
To find, and I will
Hold, then lead, then lie
And I will... no I won't

Is it now really time? Can I just give mind, if I can simply trade Deal Made

Take her place
And I will
See her face
No reason
Let it slide
And I will
Watch her die...
To run through fields
To find, and I will
Hold, then lead, then lie
And I will... no I won't

Run, hide away from me Desouled, to seek, decide And I will, no I won't

Run through fields to find Hold then lead, then lie And I will Run, desouled, and Hold, to heal, to find And I can't
