

Nickelback, Unredeemable

Unredeemable
Unredeemable

Every moment taking all that I could take
Never stopped to watch destruction in the wake
With all the bridges burned and wounds I didn't mend
The worth I thought I'd earned was worthless in the end

And still I try
To make amends to the end of time
Or am I

Unredeemable
Can I be a man who breaks
From a lifetime of mistakes
Oh
Can my worst be left behind
And do I deserve to find
A kind of love that I can lean on every day?
Or will my soul forever stay
Unredeemable
Unredeemable

Unredeemable

Years of sweat and tears to overcompensate
Banking every deed needed to accumulate
Haunted by someone I'm trying to replace
Repenting for a past I wish I could erase

And still I try
To make amends to the end of time
Or am I

Unredeemable
Can I be a man who breaks
From a lifetime of mistakes
Oh...
Can my worst be left behind
And do I deserve to find
A kind of love that I can lean on every day
Or will my soul forever stay
Unredeemable
Unredeemable

Is it fortune
Is it fate
To fix this life
Is there time or a little bit too late
Am I worthy to lift this weight?
I've got to try
Or am I

Unredeemable
Can I be a man who breaks
Oh
A kind of love that I can lean on every day

Or will my soul forever stay
Unredeemable
Unredeemable

Unredeemable
Unredeemable

Unredeemable
