

Nightrage, Frozen

Maybe you don't know. What is joy or sorrow.
You feel so abandoned suppress your feelings.
That's the legacy of destiny.
I don't know if you'll find out the truth. The peace in your heart.
The realm of fantasy. To the world's end. In all my life confronting the danger.

(Chorus:)

Your heart is like a frozen half light atmosphere.
A lonely soul that smoulder from the thirst of suffering.
Your heart is like a frozen half light atmosphere.
One symbol of a strange concealed lightning.

All my being that never fall down.
Unharmmed facing the obstacles of life.
For the risk of an everlasting idea.
Chronicle of the pure.
This cosmos is so fuckin hard.
The wolves always return for their quarry.
Entering the game of life.
All the innocence is gone away.

(Chorus x2)
