

Niki & The Dove, DJ Ease My Mind

In a, in a deep sleep
Awaken by the dragons
Kept you hidden here with me
Whats not repaired
For a dead end

Take me take, me downtown
Tonight
I want to forget
I want lights too
Blind me
I want
Want to disappear

Ooh DJ, ease my mind will you
Play that song again
'Cause we were in love
Before, before the rain began
And if I cry out, cover my ears

A foreign hand and runaway horser
Restless doubt heartin
In a vision
I did not see
See it coming
Now it's in my blood
Now it's in my blooddj, ease my mind will you

Ooh DJ, ease my mind will you
Play that song again
'Cause we were in love
Before, before the rain began
And if I cry out, cover my ears
