

Niki & The Dove, The Drummer

Sometimes I wonder what made me leave it
The water in the deep sea
The crystal chain
Sometimes I look to the west
And I wonder what made me leave it
And the dream I had of something to grow old to
Now I lost it
Oh I love the rhythm
The pounding of my heart
I?m a drum, I?m a drum now
It is what makes me human
Oh a beat to the bone
Oh I am a drum
It?s the heart, it?s the heart
It is what makes me human
Sometimes I look to the beast
And I wonder, when will she reach me?
The very core of me,
I will have to cross that river
Oh I love the rhythm
The pounding of my heart
I?m a drum, I?m a drum now
It is what makes me human
Oh a beat to the bone

Oh I am a drum
It?s the heart, it?s the heart
It is what makes me human
For every footstep, it?s getting hard to turn back
And did I ever know where I came from?
And do I know where I?m heading at?
For every footstep, it?s getting hard to look back
And did I ever know where I came from?
And do I want what I?m heading for?
Oh ask yourself, do you?
Oh I love the rhythm
The pounding of my heart
I?m a drum, I?m a drum now
It is what makes me human
Oh a beat to the bone
Oh I am a drum
It?s the heart, it?s the heart
It is what makes me human

Oh, I have to cross that river / 3x
