

Nikki Murray, She's Electric

I love the way you dress
I love your brown long hair
I love the way you move
It's like you just don't care
It's easy for me to see why all the boys are all on you
With eyes ahead of the game they all undressing you

Ow ow ow ow she's electric

You got a special touch
It gets me everyday
I never knew that I
Could even feel this way
It's easy for me to see why all the boys are all on you
My thought ahead of the game
I'm gonna jump with you

Ow ow ow ow she's electric

Well I don't care what my dumb heart says
It's been road tic tac but it's still not there
Your sweet kiss keeps me up all night
Just like a lullaby
My baby's cool she likes that
My baby's cool she's electric
My baby's cool she likes that
My baby's cool she's electric

You just the girl I need
You make me feel alive
The way I am right now
I wish I could describe
It's easy for me to see why all the boys are all on you
She's electric

Well I don't care what my dumb heart says
It's been road tic tac but it's still not there
Your sweet kiss keeps me up all night
Just like a lullaby
My baby's cool she likes that
My baby's cool she's electric
My baby's cool she likes that
My baby's cool she's electric
She's electric

Well I don't care what my dumb heart says
It's been road tic tac but it's still not there
Your sweet kiss keeps me up all night
Just like a lullaby
