

Nikki Yanofsky, Something New

You've never seen the likes on me baby
When I walk in a room
(walk in a room)
Nothing you've read in magazines darling
So let me tell you the news
(tell you the news)
Hey have you heard there's a new sensation
Extra, extra
I'm coming to you
You know you want it
You know it's true
Uh huh
The beat is bopping
It's moving you
Uh huh
Your toes are tapping
Down in your shoes
I feel you dropping
A different groove
Hey let me show what I wanna roll to
If you kick it old school
I could be your something new
I could be your something new
I
I got a treat for ya
Something to make you smile
(make you smile)
It needs a little bit of heat baby
Let it simmer a while (simmer a while)
oh
Hey have you heard
I'm sweeping in the nation
Extra, extra
I'm talking to you
You know you want it
You know it's true
Uh huh
The beat is bopping
It's moving you
Uh huh
Your toes are tapping
Down in your shoes
Hey let me show you what I wanna roll to
We can kick it old school
I could be your something new
I could be your something new [skatting]
Extra, extra
I'm coming for you
I know you want it
You know it's true
Uh huh
The beat is bopping
It's moving you
Uh huh
Your toes are tapping
Down in your shoes
I feel you dropping
A different groove
Let me show you if you're close enough to roll to
If we kick it old school

I could be your something new
I could be your something new
