

Nine Inch Nails, Perfect Drug (Remix)

without you without you everything falls apart
without you it's not as much fun to pick up the pieces
without you without you everything falls apart
without you it's not as much fun to pick up the pieces
it's not as much fun to pick up the pieces
it's not as much fun to pick up the pieces
without you without you everything falls apart
without you it's not as much fun to pick up the pieces (chrous fades away)
(strings play intro)
(heavy guitars play)
when i sit alone i think of you (and all the things you do)
why do you make me cry (your monster i hope you die)
breathe out (breathe in)
your pain begins
breathe out (breathe in)
your life begins
whats with you stuped bitch what more could you take you life behind your lies so smug and fake.
as i break away i see the light of day
cold
days rest, i see the way make a path for a new day you know what im gonna do, (THERE WONT BE MORE LIKE YOU)
breathe out (breathe in)
your pain begins
breahte in (breathe in)
your life begins
