

NiNi, HUYAO

Through shadows
She follows me
I get lost in a waking dream
In stillness
My world departs
Her ice cold touch
Grabs my heart

She comes in the dead of the night
And calls out to me
Destiny in her eyes
And they see right through me

She lives in two worlds at a time
I hear her clearly in my mind
Singing a lullaby
And it's haunting me

BLEGH

Nine tails, full of lies
A mask on her face that she can't hide
It's her vulpine figure, she can't deny

God Possess Me

She comes in the dead of the night
And calls out to me
Destiny in her eyes
And she sees right through me

She lives in two worlds at a time
I hear her clearly in my mind
Singing a lullaby
It's haunting me

It's haunting me

It's haunting me
