</lyrics>

In the morning's trance
The light Creates a separate road
And the hearts are unprepared
For the love which will suddenly fade tomorrow

It's too deep.
It can't touch our hearts directly

Cherry blossom
Cherry blossom
The hand on your shoulder is shaking
Good bye fall in love
Good bye fall in love

Cherry blossom
A silent drill
The message that your sigh is spinning
Good bye fall in love
Good bye fall in love
You can hear me, right?

In this vast world that is empty
The pupil starts talking...

staring at me, and smiling slightly
You can stand with Something so beautiful, right?

Had I known
What was not reduced?

Cherry blossom
In your voice
Which is everywhere then scatters
Good bye fall in love
Good bye fall in love

In this sky
Of your love
The message that your sigh is spinning
Good bye fall in love
Good bye fall in love

Cherry blossom
Where is the end
Of the continuous sorrow?
Good bye fall in love
Good bye fall in love

Cherry blossom
Cherry blossom
Forgetting all the tears
From now on fall in love
From now on fall in love
Am I reaching you?
