

NLE Choppa, HOME

Now that I'm gone, you tryna remodel
I used to ride for you, foot on the throttle
Now that I'm gone, your life is hollow
You ain't gon' love me tomorrow
I hope that feels, I hope that feels-

I was your pistol, you was my holster
I was your lungs, bitch you was a smoker
Took your heart, I'm your donor
You was my house but he was the owner
Rent you out, I came over
You was my drug, but now I'm sober
You be the gun, I be the soldier
When you cry, I'm your shoulder
If you die, I die too
Keep that hammer, I'm your tool
Can I float in your pool
One more time before you move?
I know I did you wrong
Can I be your coupon?
Can you save me from my wrongs?
Never thought that you'd be gone
No more heartfelt conversations
Was the love real? Contemplating
Reality I'm facing, aching
Took my heart, now I need a replacement
Ayy, shot, shot, shot, shots
I've been drinking a lot, tryna stop thinking
About when we was linking, when we was in sync
But now I'm sinking without you
Singing about you, stuck on love
But love don't live here no more

Can't control my, lost my soul
Can I move on?
Had to move on
Eviction note is on my home
Home, home, home
Home, home
To move on, you was my home
Home, home, home
Home, home
Had to say goodbye to my home (Ayy)

Used to be in the pit but I copped it
All good, but it really turn all bad
Like the wintertime, I had to fall back
To be real, I ain't even wanna come to that
No, there will be no remix
And nowhere for you to visit
Vented, but your ears wouldn't listen
Tripping on me, but you the one that was tripping
Killing me softly, but you ain't gon' kill me (Kill me)
Stay strong, stand firm
At your weakest is what I learn (I learn)
At the point of no return, I was the flame, how'd I get burned?
All cool, it's all love, baby (Love)
Will I ever find love? Maybe
I won't hold my breath 'cause I might choke to death
Can you save me?

Can't control my, lost my soul
Can I move on?
Had to move on

Eviction note is on my home
Home, home, home
Home, home
To move on, you was my home
Home, home, home
Home, home
Had to say goodbye to my home
