

Noa, Lama

Lyrics: Noa

Music: Noa + Gil Dor

He's so compassionate
He's oh so kind
All in peace, he says
All in time

He's wrapped in wisdom
And wisdom he speaks
So compassionate that I could freak

Time is running out on him
God is out to lunch
Time is running out on his decision
Every day that passes
Proves that god has lost his glasses...
Or could it be that tears have blurred his vision

He's so compassionate
He's oh so kind
All in peace, he says
All in time

He's wrapped in wisdom
From his head down to his feet
So compassionate but oh so weak

Time is running out on him....

He's so compassionate
It's all for their sake
Well, I don't know philosophy
But I do know ache

This ache is bigger
Than words on TV
So compassionate,
How can he be?

Now that time is running out on him...
