Noah And The Whale, There Will Come A Time

One day things will turn out as planned You? Il have her in the palm of your hand But it?s not tonight, no not tonight

One day she?ll look at you and say I never thought I could feel this way But it?s not tonight, no not tonight

There will come a time Where you will need your friends tonight There will come a time Where you will need someone tonight

One day she?ll hang on to your arms Chasing the night all the way ?til the dawn But it?s not tonight, no not tonight

One day soon you?ll find a way You look and you learn to think and to say But it?s not tonight, no not tonight

There will come a time Where you will need your friends tonight And there will come a time Where you will need someone tonight

And when it feels like everyone?s turning their backs on you And when it feels like everyone?s turning their backs on you Oh when the sun?s not out but you know you got to see it through Oh when the sun?s not out but you know you got to see it through

There will come a time Where you will need your friends tonight There will come a time Where you will need someone tonight

There will come a time Where you will need your friends tonight There will come a time Where you will need someone tonight

There will come a time
Where you will need your friends tonight
There will come a time
Where you will need someone tonight
