

NOCTURNA, New Evil

I dream Fall to come back again pouring Rain over us to wash Sins away and turn them to Dust Behind this Glass where Dusk holds away every Heart

Time passed away with the Snow Frail as the Ice the Land below With the first rays of Light it crumbled apart under our feet and we fell down

Seed of Light
Breed of Sin
Born and raised to bring New Evil Play along with me if you want to make it real

Seed of Light
Breed of Sin
Born and raised to bring New Evil
Down from Heaven
Straight to Hell to rule together

I had Wings but left them for Horns Nothing changed for me though I'm not what I used to be when I was up there with you watching the World turn to Ash

Sun froze as Heavens above Cried as a Thunder striked the Earth Where our Hearts used to be a black Void now bleeds We lost our wings and we fell down
