

Nomy, Atonic atrocity

I cant reach you anymore cause you wont open up the door Yeah I dont know you anymore It feels like I just died what you said cannot hide
But you will care when I am gone For the weakness that we share non disparity for the past and joy of infinity our atrocity Lets sing out please do shout this song is made of sorrow Lets scream now you know how We need some time to borrow
You laugh and cry
You live and you die Yoo you twist and turn, you crash and you'll burn like one, but two there's nothing we cant do burn over roots we dont let now one I know that you're strong But sometimes you dont know when you are wrong
But I still miss you when you're gone Thats why I give you another song
And I'll sing it all night long
